

Temperance Column.

By the Ocala Temperance Reform Club.

Edited by J. A. Munden.

The Club meets every Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in Temperance Hall. The Public are invited.

FROM JOHN G. WOOLEY.

The following, taken from the Pilot, are extracts from a speech of John G. Wooley to the Christian Endeavor convention at Boston:

I would never ask a man to send his son to the Sabbath school where the superintendent is in favor of liquor saloons, or put myself into Christian company of deacons and office-holders of a church who themselves smell of wine, and, because of their complicity with the liquor traffic, are unable to raise their voices in the name of Jesus Christ against the saloon-keepers. [Great applause.]

A drunkard must go to a higher level of Christian grace and faith and service than is represented by a license superintendent or tipping deacon or Christian man who lets a horse to a saloon or brothel keeper. For Jesus Christ's sake, let us get the church clean. [Tremendous applause.]

I expect to win the fight and put my own heel on the neck of the liquor traffic. I will plant my heel upon its accursed neck, with "Down, down to hell, and say I sent thee." [Tremendous applause.]

During the last ten years there have been over 21,000 deaths in this country from yellow fever; while the deaths from alcoholism in the same period have reached the enormous number of 650,000. What would be the result if we quarantined alcohol with the same strictness as we do yellow fever?—Christian Work.

In New York last Sunday only thirteen arrests for violation of the Sunday saloon law had been made by the police up to 10 o'clock at night. The number made the week previous was thirty. Never before have so few Sunday arrests been made in the city.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

I wish to suggest to my friends and the public in general to place their orders for Portraits and Photographs intended for HOLIDAY GIFTS as early as possible. The work can be delivered to you whenever you desire, only, as all careful workmanship demands skill as well as time, the sooner you place your order with me the better. Very respectfully yours,
N. I. GOTTLEB.
